Reception Newsletter

MENTAL HEALTH DAY

On Monday we will be having a 'Mental Health Day' please can your child wear something yellow such as a t-shirt, shoes, hair clip, please don't buy something.

HALLOWEEN WEEK

Next week we will be going Halloween mad, all the learning will be a spooky fun element and because of the uncertainly of Halloween with covid we wanted to finish the first half term with a Halloween party. So on FRIDAY 23rd October children can come to school in Halloween clothes, fancy dress etc PLEASE DON'T buy anything homemade things are always the best. Thank you.

SNACK MONEY

For those who are paying half termly, snack money will be due the first week back. We still have a lot of outstanding snack money from this half term. Thank you.

Little Red Hen / Word of the Day

Please see attached sheets, your child will teach you! The videos of the little red hen are on our facebook page. ENJOY!xxx

LOST BAPTISM SHOE

PLEASE CAN YOU CHECK YOUR BAPTISM ITEMS THAT THERE ISNT A BAPTISM SHOE MIXED IN BY MISTAKE!THANKS!

Head Lice

There have been a few cases of head lice within reception, please check your child's hair. Can girls please wear their hair up, its more practical and eases the spread. Thank you.

Spare Socks

Each child has a compartment for spare socks in class, so they can put their socks on easier after being outside. Pease send in a few pairs at a time and we can keep the compartment full. Thank you.

Website-Class Page

Make sure you check out our class page every week to see what we have been doing!

https://www.st-pats.co.uk/class-pages/early-years/our-learning-6/our-current-learning

Learning Book

There were A LOT of people who haven't activated their learning book accounts. I have requested another registration email for you. In the email click the link and set up a password to access your child's account. We spend many hours in the evenings and at the weekend uploading the observations, so please take the time to view them! Thank you.

NO EARRINGS ALLOWED IN SCHOOL, THANKS